1770

May 7, 1934

Margaret Bruce
Keen Ties
No relation

Sterling May 7/34

My dear Jean

I am pretty well but have a habit of putting off writing from day to day. The truth is I do not see well. Some days worse than others, but can generally read good print with children relatives and neighbors time I am very happy. Had a letter recently from Minnie Bruce Dunedson said she is pretty well but feels lonely, I suppose every old person who outlives their generation feels that way. I know Mother did. So long life is not all pleasure but we cling to life and never want to let go. Minnie may visit us this summer we hope to have a visit from her and Minnie Bruce this summ

Jean Bruce Tinker is CABB's sister Margaret's oldest child.

→ probably Jean Bruce Tinker (1872-1945); see p. 1764 & 1914

→ see p. 1746 # 6

Wilhelmina Jean (Bruce) Davison — 1st cousin of CABB

"Mother" is Jean (Russell) Bruce — see p. 1763

← Mina ↑

↑ Nannie (Mills) Bruce — p. 1765, CABB's sister-in-law